PREFACE

The arrangement of the present volume of the Inventories of Oriental manuscripts in Leiden University Library does not differ in any specific way from the volumes which have been published earlier (vols. 5, 12, 13, 14, 20, 22 and 25). For the sake of brevity I refer to my prefaces in those volumes. A few essentials may be repeated here.

Not all manuscripts mentioned in the present volume were viewed by autopsy. The sheer number of manuscripts makes this impossible. At a later stage this may be achieved, but trying to achieve this at the present stage of inventorizing would seriously hamper the progress of the present project. When a manuscript was not inspected this can be seen from a simple typographical device. Whenever the indication of the shelf-mark is put between round brackets, I have not, or not extensively or sufficiently, inspected the manuscript, and its entry in the inventory is based mostly or entirely on secondary sources, be they published or not. These have, of course, always been indicated. When the shelf-mark is put between square brackets and preceded by an asterisk, this means that I have had the manuscript in my hands, at least once but probably more often, and that the description contains elements that can only be seen in the original manuscript. Such autopsy does not mean that I am, automatically, the author of all information given under that particular class-mark.

The basic elements for each entry of the present inventory are: 1. class-mark, 2. language(s), 3. details of physical description, 4. survey of the contents, 5. provenance, 6. location on the shelf. Depending on the nature of the material, exceptions and divergences are made from this strict arrangement. The collective provenance of a series of manuscripts may be concentrated into a short text, preceding that series, without being repeated under each class-mark.

I end with an important note. Although the inventories which I am publishing here contain descriptions of public and private collections, which will no doubt profit of the existence of electronic versions of my work, none of my inventories has ever been made at the express insistence or by the specific demand of these institutions. The idea to compile such inventories, the invention of their structure, the acquisition of the necessary information from a multitude of primary and secondary sources, the way of publishing, all this is my idea and my work alone. It is therefore my sole property and I assert the moral right of the authorship of form and content of these inventories, with reference, of course, to what I have said elsewhere about the method of compilation.

VOLUME 6

MANUSCRIPTS OR. 5001 – OR. 6000
REGISTERED IN LEIDEN UNIVERSITY LIBRARY
IN THE PERIOD BETWEEN MAY 1905 AND MAY 1917

Continuation of the Second Millies collection (Or. 4996-Or. 5011), consisting of copperplate, palmleaves, bambu strips, manuscripts and papers from the estate of Prof. H.C. Millies (1810-1868), professor of Oriental languages in Utrecht University, and before that employed by the Dutch Bible Society in the Dutch East-Indies. See for succinct biographical details Encyclopædie van Nederlandsch-Indië (2e druk), II, pp. 729-730, and the references there. Also: P. Voorhoeve, Codices Batacici, p. 234. His library had been auctioned off shortly after his death. See the catalogue: Catalogue de la bibliothèque délaissée par feu M. le Dr. H.C. Millies. Vente 7 mai 1870 (Utrecht, Beijers, 1870, 262 pp.) [UBL: 752 E 16, partly annotated with prices], which is, with its 4361 titles and 68 objects, a witness of Millies' wide and varied interests. In the auction catalogue there are some manuscript materials mixed with the majority of the printed books. Several of these were purchased by the Library of Leiden University and were then registered as Or. 1930-1943, 1959 ('Journal', p. 43). At the end of the auction catalogue there are three pages with objects from Borneo, which were also sold. The present collection of manuscripts was purchased in 1905 from Mrs. J.C.W. de Boer-Roorda van Eysinga ('Journal', pp. 91-92).

Or. 5001

Javanese, paper, 16 pp.

Several shorter Javanese texts in Arabic script, with schematical drawings. Somewhat damaged paper, 16 pp. According to a note in Dutch on the cover, the MS would originate from Bonjol from a Padri environment (the Padri wars lasted from 1833 till 1837). Notes on Muslim prayers and religious exercises. See Pigeaud II, p. 252, where transliteration of the beginning.

See Pigeaud II, p. 254.

Or. 12.692, below, is a transcript made from texts Nos. 6-11 in the present manuscript, which was prepared within the framework of C. Hooykaas' Balinese manuscript project.

¶ This manuscript was returned by the government of The Netherlands to Indonesia. On February 27, 1970, it was officially transferred by the University librarian, Mr. J.R. de Groot, to the Dutch Ministry of Education. The manuscript was returned to Indonesia during the official visit of Queen Juliana and Prince Bernhard to Indonesia in the course of 1970. The fate of the original manuscript was widely speculated upon, when it was lost from sight shortly afterwards. However, in the summer of 1991 I was able to see and recognize the manuscript as part of the Javanese manuscript collection in the Perpustakaan Nasional, the National Library, in Jakarta. At that time it was unrestrictedly available for scholarly research.

In Leiden the manuscript can be consulted in the form of photographic prints on paper, and in microfilm.

Cat. Juynboll II, p. 138, has a concise Dutch epitome, with enumeration of the sources mentioned in the text. See Pigeaud II, p. 320.

¶ Cat. Juynboll III, p. 189, describes Or. 5421 and has, for Nos. 4 and 5, a reference to Or. 5441 (4). In Juynboll's catalogue this is treated on p. 190. This must, however, be a mistake and Juynboll must have confused the class-marks, as he has done on several other occasions. The actual manuscript Or. 5441 is described in cat. Juynboll II, p. 138, and in Pigeaud II, p. 320. It is not clear which class-mark is meant instead of the erroneous Or. 5441 in Juynboll's reference.

Or. 5443

Collective volume with texts in Malay, paper, 76 pp., copied by H.C. Millies.

(1) pp. 1-74. The introductory part of Book II and fasal 12 and 13, of the Bustan al-Salatin by Nur al-Din al-Raniri (Nuru'd-din ar-Raniri, d. 1658), as copied by H.C. Millies (1810-1868) from a copy by H.N. van der Tuuk (1824-1894) of MS London, R.A.S. Raffles Malay 42, with in the margins the variant readings of MS London R.A.S. Raffles Malay 8 (see M.C. Ricklefs & P. Voorhoeve (1977), pp. 134, 138). Van der Tuuk's own copy has not come in the Leiden collection. Or. 3260 d, above contains excerpts in Dutch by van der Tuuk of MS London, R.A.S. Malay 42, but not the Malay text. Millies's handwriting can be identified with the help of a letter by him in the Western Department of the Leiden Library (Ltk. 1795 III (3)).

Pp. 1-5. Introductory part.

Pp. 5-22. Fasal 12, on the history of Malaka and Pahang.

Pp. 22-74 contain Fasal 13, on the history of Aceh. That text has been edited from the present manuscript by T. Iskandar as: Nuru'd-din ar-Raniri, Bustanu's-salatin. Bab II, fasal 13. Kuala Lumpur 1966 [S 5882:12, (in 4930)]. Iskandar's editorial work is in fact not much more than a transliteration of Millies' copying and van der Tuuk's collation and text-critical work. He could easily have based his edition directly on the two London manuscripts.

P. Voorhoeve (1899-1996) has begun with writing (blue ink) variant readings from MS KBG 420 Mal. in the margins of pp. 1-2, probably from the microfilm of that MS in Leiden (A 59a).

An electronic version of the text as in the present MS can be consulted through the Malay Concordance Project, as Bustan al-Salatin of Al-Raniri in the critical edition prepared by Siti Hawa Haji Salleh:

http://online.anu.edu.au/asianstudies/ahcen/proudfoot/MCP/BS_bib.html [link not valid anymore]

¶ In his edition of 1966 (p. 14) and again in his Catalogue of 1999 (p. 196, No. 435), Iskandar states that the MS was copied by H.N. van der Tuuk (1824-1894). This is incorrect, as is immediately clear when one opens the manuscript. Instead of the wild handwriting of van der Tuuk we find here a very neatly written manuscript. One should e.g. compare Or. 2260 d, above, which contains excerpts in Dutch in the handwriting of van der Tuuk about the same passages taken from the very same MS London R.A.S. Raffles Malay 42. That handwriting is entirely different. G.K. Niemann (1823-1905) writes in his Bloemlezing uit Maleische geschriften (The Hague 1870-1871) I, p. 55; II, p. 20 [858 E 34-35], that he has used the two London manuscripts for the few stories which he has included in his anthology (I, pp. 262-270). He had had in mind (I, p. 56) to publish the history of Malaka, Pahang and Aceh later on, as he did in Bloemlezing II, pp. 117-137 (text) and II, pp. 20-28 (notes and criticism). The fact that Niemann had obtained this MS after Millies' demise in 1868 evidently enabled him to do that. But Niemann did not copy it, as is stated by M.C. Ricklefs and P. Voorhoeve, Indonesian manuscripts in Great Britain. A catalogue of manuscripts in Indonesian languages in British public collections. Oxford 1977, p. 138.

The unnecessary confusion in this matter may have been caused by a manuscript note on the fly-leaf at the end of the volume. It is in the hand of H.C. Millies (1810-1868) and reads: 'Copij van het afschrift en de collatie door Dr. H.N. van der Tuuk genomen der Hss. van de Bostan-as-Salatin, te London aanwezig bij de Royal Asiatic Society.' To this was added by G.K. Niemann: 'Mij geschonken door Mevrouw de wed. Millies.' This only means that Millies had copied a copy which van der Tuuk had made while in London, and that Niemann owned Millies' copy before it came in the Leiden library.

Another fragment of the Bustan al-Salatin was critically edited by Russel Jones from the two manuscripts in London and other ones: Bustanu's-salatin. Bab IV, fasal 1. A critical edition and translation of the first part of Fasal 1, which deals with Ibrahim ibn Adham. Kuala Lumpur 1974 [8098 E 5 / 8102 D 11]. On p. 2 he praises Iskandar's text-critical work in the 1966 edition.

(2) pp. 75-76. Copy by H.C. Millies, probably of a copy by H.N. van der Tuuk, of a copy of a pass issued by Sultan Jauhar Alam Shah of Aceh on Monday 27 Safar 1220, concerning a captured ship 'Allum Shah'. The ship's captain Lippiat is mentioned in the document (p. 75, last line). H.C. Millies copied this text from the document in the collection of the R.A.S. in London which is registered as Johnston collection 69 A (information kindly supplied by Annabel Teh-Gallop, British Library, London). He has also copied the heading of the first copy, which was apparently written by the ship's captain, who also may have copied the text of the original document: 'A true copy from the original pass from the King of Achin for the grab ship Allum Shah. J.D. Lippiat'. To this Millies/van der Tuuk have added: 'Waarbij eene Malabaarsche Vertaling. Boven aan de pas staat: Great Seal of Achin en in een kring het volgende:' There follows the text of the seal. The Malabarese translation is not included here. The present whereabouts of the original document are not known.

Makassarese and Dutch, paper, 12 ff., Latin script, two copyists, Dutch text in the hand of B.F. Matthes (1818-1908), the Makassarese text by the same copyist who also wrote the following manuscript.

'Makassaarsche Vertaling des Korans' Makassarese translation of the Qur'an. The fragment contains the translation of sura 1 –sura 2:28, written on the right pages. On the left pages is a literal translation of the Makassarese text into Dutch (ff. 1b-10a).

Some explanatory notes in the margins. Ff. 11-12 blank.

¶ On f. 10b Matthes has written:

'Uit het voorafgaande gedeelte der Mak. vert. vd Koran, zal het reeds overvloedig kunnen blijken, dat dit werk minder den naam van vertaling danwel van omschrijving verdient.

Voorts is het ook niet te ontkennen, dat de stijl op sommige plaatsen aan groote duisterheid lijdt welke voor den Makr. nog vermeerderd wordt door het noodeloos gebruik van vele Arabische woorden, wier ware kracht en juiste beteekenis zelfs zijn kundigste priesters hem ter naauwernood kunnen verklaren.

Om deze redenen zou het zeker niet raadzaam zijn om zich, bij eene vertolking der HS. deze Mak. vert. des Korans tot v.b. te stellen; ofschoon dezelve anders welligt, bij het overbrengen van enkele woorden en phrases eenige dienst zou kunnen doen.

Arabic, Javanese, Malay, Sundanese, Javanese paper (dluang), 392 pp., different hands, incomplete at beginning and end.
 Notebook (primbon) of a Javanese follower of the Shattariyya order, as appears from the *silsila`*s on pp. 90 ff, and 272 ff. It contains a mixture of Javanese, Arabic, Malay and Sundanese notes. Many of the Arabic pieces have interlinear translations in Javanese.

Most of the Arabic notes are abstracts from handbooks of Fiqh, prayers, formulae of Dhikr, etc. On pp. 151-136 there is a text on the personal qualities of the Prophet Muhammad (Sifat al-Nabi). On pp. 188-195 we find the well-known Ayat Lima-Welas, the 15 verses of the Qur'an., with Javanese commentary (sarah, Sharh), about the merit of their recitation. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, pp. 466-467, which contains the best description of the contents of the present manuscript

- Pigeaud II, p. 321, has the following description: Notes, mainly chapters of Muslim law (fiqh) referring to the salat and to marriage and divorce, and prayers (do'a) suitable for various occasions and good for many ends, mostly in Arabic with Javanese glosses. At the end some Javanese didactic poems in tembang macapat. One lengthy Malay passage and some Sundanese notes. Probably of West-Javanese origin, perhaps Purwakarta. The Sattariya tarika is mentioned several times.

- T. Iskandar, Catalogue (1999), p. 198 (No. 441) distinguishes on pp. 310-330 a treatise on Qur'an recitation, Tagwid, apparently in Malay.

Collection of Javanese, Malay manuscripts from the estate of A.C. Vreede (1840-1908). The collection contains many materials which have previously been in the possession of T. Roorda (1801-1874). Received in the Library in September 1908.

Or. 5533

Javanese, Dutch, paper, 233 items of different sizes, Javanese script for the Javanese documents..

Letters, Javanese, sent by Javanese princes and gentlemen to Dutch governors and other officials mostly in Surakarta and Yogyakarta, dated about 1820-1830, originals, many provided with seals. Sometimes official Dutch translations have been added. Roorda's facsimile edition of Javanese letters is based on this collection.

The original documents have been bound together, often provided with a Dutch translation (by Winter). On the spine a label reads: 'Uitgegevene Javaansche brieven, enz.'. The title-page reads: 'Handschriften van het grootste gedeelte der uitgegevene Javaansche brieven enz. benevens de translaten daarvan, voor zoo ver die bestaan'. On each document there is a note in pencil about the use that has been made of it, such as having been included in the lithographed facsimile edition, having been edited somewhere, etc.

Photographic copy of MS Oxford, Bodl. (cat. Uri, No. 1015), being Bast al-Ard fi Tuliha wal-Ard, by Abu al-Hasan `Ali b. Musa Ibn Sa`id (d. 685/1286, or 673/1274), GAL G I, 337. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 42. In Or. 5574 b is correspondence from 1904 about the manufacturing of the photographs.

(Ar. 2456)

Or. 5579

Arabic, paper, ff., copied by William Wright (1830-1889).

Copy by William Wright, probably of ff. 3b-58b of MS London, B.L. Or. 77 (Catalogue No. 1631), being al-Mutrib fi Ash`ar Ahl al-Maghrib by Ibn Dihya (d. 633/1235), GAL G I, 311.

See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 244.

(Ar. 2457)

Or. 5580

Arabic, paper, ff., copied by M.J. de Goeje (1836-1909).

Kitab al-Kharag by Qudama b. Ga`far al-Katib (d. probably 310/922), GAL G I, 228. The section al-Manzila al-Sabi`a only, copied from the MS Schéfer, with abstracts and notes by de Goeje. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 158.

(Ar. 2458)

Or. 5581

Arabic, paper, ff., copied by R.P.A. Dozy (1820-1883) and W.H. Engelmann.

Passages copied by Dozy and Engelmann from manuscripts in Paris and Oxford of Nuzhat al-Mushtaq fi Ikhtiraq al-Afaq, or Kitab Rugar, by Abu `Abdallah Muhammad b. Muhammad al-Sharif al-Idrisi (d. 560/1166), GAL G I, 477. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, pp. 259-260. See for similar notes by Dozy also Or. 7012 (1), below.

(Ar. 2459)

Or. 5582

Arabic, paper, 71 pp., dated 1302 AH.

Kitab al-Ratib al-Mubarak li-Sayyidina al-Gami` al-Imam al-Mahdi (= Muhammad Ahmad b. `Abdallah al-Mahdi (d. 1302/1885), GAL S II, 896). See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 285.

Partial copy by Carl Brockelmann (1868-1956) from MS Istanbul, Köprülü 1222, being Kitab al-Bayan wal-Tabyin by `Amr b. Bahr al-Gahiz (d. 255/868), GAL G I, 153. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 49. Possibly made for Gerlof van Vloten (1866-1903). (Ar. 2462)

Or. 5585 a-f

Study materials from the estate of M.J. de Goeje (1836-1909). Some of the materials which are registered under this class-mark may originate from the estate of R.P.A. Dozy (1820-1883). His handwriting can be seen, and several letters are directed to him. Other materials come apparently from P.J. Veth (1814-1895). The materials are preserved in 6 portfolios (Or. 5585 a – Or. 5585 f). Or. 5585 e – f contain the archive of De Goeje's project of the edition of Tabari. (Ar. 2478 a-f)

Or. 5585 a

Sheaf with study notes, lecture notes and letters, all from the estate of M.J. de Goeje (1836-1909). The sheaf has (not yet) been ordered and arranged, but a few major parts may be discerned, and these contain materials in Dutch, Latin, Arabic and Hebrew. At the end several letters of scholarly content.

1. Hebrew, Dutch. Small exercise book. With notes on and quotations from Deuteronomium 33. Most pages blank.
2. Arabic, Dutch. Lexicographical notes. Mostly crossed out, as having served their purpose. Many blank pages.
3. Arabic, lithograph. Two coloured maps (Tabaristan, Khurasan), after MS Gotha Ar. 1521, probably taken from the edition of Istakhri's work by J.H. Möller, Liber climatum. Gotha 1839 [847 B 14].
4. Arabic. Exercise book with notes on Arabic prosody.

To this is added a large amount of loose papers and gatherings, containing lecture notes, apparently taken by M.J. de Goeje during lectures with his professors, study notes, etc. In some notes reference is made to (Prof. Dr. Antonie) Rutgers (1805-1884), whose manuscripts are registered in Leiden as Or. 3040 - Or. 3050, and with whom de Goeje may have studied. There is also a 'Schets van geschiedenis der Arabische letterkunde'. Also a vast pile of copies, with collations, from parts of Arabic manuscripts.

Also lithograph copies of a page from a Batak manuscript, as copied by H.C. Millies (1810-1868). Also notes on Dutch literature (about works bij Hooft, Vondel, etc.). Also an undated photoprint from a page of Or. 289, sent to M.J. de Goeje by P.J. Kaiser, who was a technician and acquaintance of de Goeje. And notes and extracts on the subjects of 'Modern Persian literature', 'Modern Arabic and Persian Literature. Historical Introduction', Mandeville, Malay language and literature, Islam, Christianity among the Arabs, Apologetics against Islam, Academies of the Arabs.

* Letters, at the end of the sheaf, which are not, necessarily all directed to de Goeje.

Some may have been sent to R.P.A. Dozy (1820-1883):

- A leaf with scholarly notes, signed by J. Barth (1851-1914).
- H.L. Fleischer (1801-1888): 3 letters addressed to R.P.A. Dozy, dated Leipzig, October 11, 1882; October 26, 1882; November 14, 1882.
- St. Guyard (1846-1884): Letter to De Goeje, dated Paris, May 17, 1883.
- Th. Nöldeke (1836-1930): 1 envelope with learned notes, not dated.
- V. Rosen (1849-1908): 1 letter with enclosures, dated <Petersburg>, December 10/22, 1881.
- Letter from ?, directed to R.P.A. Dozy, dated Leiden, January 11, 1882.
- Letter from ?, to M.J. de Goeje, dated ?, November 30, 1882 (Ar. 2478 a)

Or. 5585 b

Sheaf with study notes, lecture notes and letters, all from the estate of M.J. de Goeje (1836-1909). The materials in this sheaf do not seem to originate from M.J. de Goeje himself, but rather or mostly from P.J. Veth (1814-1895). Most are in Dutch, a few in Latin.

(1) Alphabetically arranged vocabulary of Arabic words, taken from Western sources. The lemmas are written on slips and were then pasted in a writing book. They may have been written by P.J. Veth (1814-1895). Some lemmas can be found in R.P.A. Dozy, Supplément aux dictionnaires Arabes (Leiden 1881), but many cannot.

(2) 'Adversarium'. Notebook with Latin lemma's, alphabetically arranged, with notes and references, from Arabic and other sources. First lemma is Arma, weaponry, translated as Alat al-Harb, with a number of Arabic terms and words which fall under this heading, with explanation and references to their text of origin. Many pages left blank. Apparently made by a student of intermediate level, possibly dating from the first half of the 19th century. Possibly in the hand of P.J. Veth (1814-1895).

(3) Exercise book with the title 'Aanteekeningen op de Plaatsen van 't Nieuwe Testament die voornamelijk de dwalingen der Roomsche Kerk bestrijden. Vrij naar het Fransch van F. Bungener'. However, this title refers to notes which have been removed. What remains of blank pages in the booklet is now used for lexicographical notes (Arabic-Dutch), some of which seem to have a connection with R.P.A. Dozy, Supplément aux dictionnaires Arabes (Leiden 1881).

(4) Handwritten copy by M.J. de Goeje of his article 'Al-Beladhori's Ansab al-aschraf', in ZDMG 38 (1884), pp. 382-406.

(5) Pencil drawing for a frontispice of a Dutch Koran translation, showing a nich, draped with curtains, containing an open copy of the Koran, lying on a sword, on a cushion. It is not clear for which edition the drawing was made. Not signed.

- (6) 'Iets uit mijn adelborstenleven', by W.R. Adema, dedicated to P.J. Veth (1814-1895). Memoirs of an aspirant naval officer ('adelborst'), in Dutch. With reminiscences of trips in the Mediterranean.
- (7) 'Toespraak tot Opening der Vergadering van bestuurders der Algemeen Doopsgezinde Societeit, gehouden den 24sten Maart 1849'. Speech in Dutch, a funerary oration apparently for the theologian Rinse Koopmans (1770-1826), although his demise was much earlier than the date of the speech. See also the printed edition of the funerary orations for Koopmans by Samuel Muller and Jeronimo de Vries, Hulde aan Rinse Koopmans (Amsterdam 1827), in which occasion the present text seems to be fitting. The text is followed by 'Toespraak tot opening der Dubbele Vergadering van de Algemeene Doopsgezinde Societeit, gehouden den 23sten Mei 1849'. Both speeches are concluded by a prayer. Two quires. Possibly written by P.J. Veth (1814-1895).
- (8) Inaugural oration (in Latin), by P.J. Veth (1814-1895) held in 1841 (date not mentioned?), when he had been appointed Professor of Oriental languages in the Atheneum of Franeker, where he stayed from 1841-1842. Veth's autograph copy. See on Veth's stay in Franeker now also P. van der Velde, Een Indische liefde (Amsterdam 2000), pp. 77-89.
- (9) A theological essay (6 pp.) by P.J. Veth (1814-1895), in Dutch, on matters pertaining to giving a good example, with reference to texts in the New Testament. Veth's autograph, signed by him.
- (10) 'No. I. Leerrede over de behartiging onzer geestelijke belangen als het ééne noodige.' Theological oration in Dutch, taking Lucas 10:42a as point of departure. Apparently in the hand of P.J. Veth (1814-1895), and if this is correct, he is probably also the author. Not dated.
- (11) 'No. II. De Kennis der Liefde Gods jegens ons, de bron van liefderijke gezindheden omtrent God en den naasten'. Theological oration in Dutch, taking 1 John 4:8 as point of departure. Apparently in the hand of P.J. Veth (1814-1895), and if this is correct, he is probably also the author. Not dated.
- (12) 'Verhuizen'. Lecture in Dutch by P.J. Veth (1814-1895), about changing places. Possibly held when he left Breda (1841) or Franeker (1843). Veth's autograph.
- (13) 37 pp. and inserts. Lecture in Dutch by P.J. Veth (1814-1895) about Christian mission and the East Indian archipelago, held for the Nederlandsch Zendelinggenootschap in ? (town not mentioned). Not dated, but apparently held at a rather advanced age, as he refers to the many years that he has given lectures. Veth's autograph.
- (14) 25 pp. Lecture in Dutch by P.J. Veth (1814-1895) about the Netherlands and the East-Indies, held before the Dordrecht section of the 'Maatschappij tot Nut van den Javaan'. Veth's autograph.
- (15) 24 pp. Speech (or article?) in Dutch by P.J. Veth (1814-1895) on the introduction of western education in the Dutch East-Indies, held within a political context, with reference to the budget discussions in the Dutch parliament. Veth's autograph.
- (16) 4 folded sheets. German text 'Einleitung in die Bücher der Chronik, Esra and Nechemja'. Possibly in disorder and incomplete. Possibly written by P.J. Veth (1814-1895).

Or. 5585 c

Sheaf with study notes, copies from manuscripts and letters, all from the estate of M.J. de Goeje (1836-1909), and pertaining to his work. European languages, and quotations in Arabic script.

(1) Sheaf with loose leaves. Notes by M.J. de Goeje about aspects of the history of silk, in French. This includes 'La soie chez les Arabes', 'Annotations sur le 1^r chap. du II vol. De M. Pariset' and 'Observations sur le 2^e chapitre de l'ouvrage de M. Pariset'. These notes M.J. de Goeje made for Ernest Pariset (1826-1912) and served as information for the latter when he was working in 1863 and 1864 on the 1st and 2nd chapters of the 2nd volume of his book Histoire de la Soie (Paris 1862-1865 [339 E 31-32]). Pariset recalls his large indebtedness to De Goeje in vol. 2, p. 113, note 1. The sheaf also contains correspondence between de Goeje and Pariset. It appears that R.P.A. Dozy had referred his learned pupil De Goeje to Pariset, when the latter had asked for assistance. De Goeje's letters and notes are the drafts (now kept here, together with his notes), the neat copies of which he must have sent to Pariset. Pariset's letters to the Goeje are, of course, the originals. These are seven and dated Lyon, 5 février 1863, 28 février 1863, 15 avril 1863, 30 mai 1863, 20 juin 1863, 20 juillet 1863 (on letter-head of his father-in-law C.M. Teillard, a silk manufacturer in Lyon), 5 avril 1864.

(2) Exercise book with reading and study notes by M.J. de Goeje. These include a great variety of subjects, from old-Semitic religious studies to Arabic geographers and historians. Several come from De Goeje's reading of the Kitab al-Aghani (by Abu al-Farag al-Isfahani), but numerous other sources are mentioned.

(3) Envelope with notes and correspondence concerning M.J. de Goeje's edition of Diwan poetae Abu-'l-Walid Moslim ibno-'l-Walid al-Ançari cognomine Cario-'l-Ghawani (Leiden 1875 [O.L.G. 61:6521]). See also De Goeje's acknowledgments on p. viii of his preface. That edition was made by De Goeje on the basis of unique MS Leiden Or. 888, above. The sheaf includes a copy, by V. Rosen (1849-1908) of Muslim b. al-Walid's biography from the Kitab al-Aghani (taken from MS Gotha 532). There are letters by:

- W. Ahlwardt (1828-1909), with notes, two letters, dated Greifswald, 9 Juli 1873 and 2 August 1873

- William Wright (1830-1889), dated Cambridge 8 May 1875.

- Jos. Arendt, dated München, 20 Juni 1873.

(4) One sheaf containing materials concerning M.J. de Goeje, Mémoires d'histoire et de géographie Orientales. I: Mémoire sur les Carmathes du Bahrain. Leiden 1862. The sheaf contains:

(a) 'Quelques particularités sur les Karmathes du Bahreïn'. In De Goeje's hand. One sheaf, with text in French.

(b) 'De Karmathen van Bahreïn'. In De Goeje's hand. Two exercise books with text in Dutch, with lengthy quotations for Annexes, from Ibn Hawqal, MS Leiden Or. 314, above, with reference to the Oxford and Paris manuscripts.

(c) Page proof of the Mémoire of 1862, with De Goeje's corrections.

- (5) Exercise book with reading and study notes in Dutch, by M.J. de Goeje. Mostly on Arab geographers.
- (6) Exercise book with notes by M.J. de Goeje, in French and German, about the Tabari edition? Also a postcard from J. Barth (1851-1914) on a detail of textual criticism. Part of the exercise book seems to be an apparatus criticus.
- (7) Exercise book with notes (Dutch) and quotations (in Arabic) by M.J. de Goeje. The biography of al-Hallag, from the work by Ibn Miskawayh under 309 AH, copied from the manuscript of Ch. Schéfer (1820-1898), followed by notes on al-Shafi`i, taken from Kitab al-Muqaffa by al-Maqrizi (MS Leiden Or. 1366, above), followed by notes on al-Shafi`i, taken from the work by al-Khatib al-Baghdadi, taken from MS London, BM, Add. 23,319. Also notes, taken from MS London BM Add. 23,321, a work by Ibn al-Khatib, also from Ibn al-Kalbi (Add. 23,297). And several more extracts from manuscripts. At the end of the booklet a reference to a book published in 1896.
- (8) Exercise book with notes by M.J. de Goeje (starting from both sides). Dutch translation of a passage in Yaqut I, pp. 609 and ff. Further lexicographical notes, lists of Arabic words taken from European travelogues (Botte, Palgrave, Wellsted).
- (9) Exercise book with an index on Arabic historical works, probably not made by M.J. de Goeje, but rather by R.P.A. Dozy (1820-1883). Arranged by the letters of the alphabet.
- (10) Exercise book with notes by M.J. de Goeje on the Anonyme Arabische Chronik, edited by W. Ahlwardt (Greifswald 1883 [O.L.G. 64:1493]). Followed by notes on Kitab Ansab al-Ashraf by al-Baladhuri, in the manuscript belonging to Ch. Schéfer. Followed by notes, and an extract, taken from the Tabaqat by Ibn Sa`d, MS Gotha 411. Followed by notes made from Kitab al-Wuzara by Hilal al-Sabi in the edition by H.F. Amedroz (Leiden 1908 [OLG 64:5282]).
- (11) Exercise book with notes and emendations by M.J. de Goeje on several books: Die Mufaddaliyat (ed. H. Thorbecke, Leipzig 1885), Sibawaihi's Buch über die Grammatik [...] übersetzt und erklärt [...] von Gustav Jahn. (Berlin 1894-1900 [O.L.G. 52:5427-5429]), Wilhelm Heyd, Geschichte des Levantehandels im Mittelalter (Stuttgart 1879), Caetani II (= L. Caetani, Annali dell'Islam (Milano 1905-1926). The exercise book must, therefore, be from 1908 or 1909.
- (12) Exercise book with copy by M.J. de Goeje from the MS text of an (unidentified) Arab chronicle, here going from 282 AH – 301 AH (not al-Tabari's Annales). Text on 15 pp.
- (13) Exercise book with extracts and quotations in Dutch and Arabic by M.J. de Goeje from historical texts in manuscript: Kitab al-`Uyun wal-Hada'iq (MS Berlin, Wetz. II 342, vol. 4), followed by excerpts from MS Leiden Or. 2613 (1), above, being Kitab Ta'wil al-Zakat by Ga`far b. Mansur al-Yaman(i?) (middle 4th cent. AH), GAL S I, 324, followed by excerpts from a manuscript belonging to Ch. Schéfer, containing a text by Ibn al-Gawzi, followed by excerpts from the work by al-Hamadhani, in the Paris manuscript. At the end a note about the Fatimids, from Dastur al-Munaggimin, in a manuscript belonging to Ch. Schéfer. Followed by notes on al-Mukhtar fi Kashf al-Asrar wa-Hatk al-Astar, by `Abd al-Rahman b. `Umar al-Gawbari (c. 620/1223), GAL G I, 497, as in Or. 191 and Or. 2743, above. Also: a considerable number of inserts, with notes of text-critical relevance.
- (14) Exercise book with notes in Dutch and extracts in Arabic by M.J. de Goeje on Th. Nöldeke, Delectus veterum carminum arabicorum (Berlin 1890), with a proof copy of De

Goeje's review of this work in ZDMG 44, pp. 706-710. Followed by notes about the edition and translation by C. Brockelmann, Die Gedichte des Lebid (Leiden 1891), P. Schwarz, Der Diwan des Umar ibn Abi Rebi'a (Leipzig 1901-1909), and I. Goldziher, Der Diwan des Garwal b. Aus Al-Hutej'a (Leipzig 1893), Georg Jacob, Studien in arabischen Dichtern (Berlin 1893-1897), the Diwan of Ibn Muqarrabi, in MS Brill 28 (Houtsma's Catalogue, p. 141), A. von Kremer, History of Muhammad's Campaigns (Calcutta 1856), Th. Nöldeke, Fünf Moallaqat (Wien 1899-1902), and an article by F. Schulthess (1868-1922) published in ZDMG 54, pp. 523 ff. Added are a letter by Th. Nöldeke (1836-1930) to M.J. de Goeje, dated Strassburg 25 January 1891, and a letter by Georg Jacob (1862-1937) to M.J. de Goeje, dated Berlin, 24 April 1891. (Ar. 2478 c)

Or. 5585 d

Sheaf with study notes, copies from manuscripts and letters, all from the estate of M.J. de Goeje (1836-1909), and pertaining to his work. European languages, and quotations in Arabic script.

- (1) 'Strafrecht der Arabieren'. Text in Dutch of a lecture or article by (?) M.J. de Goeje.
- (2) Notes concerning Or. 303b, above, being al-Filaha al-Nabatiyya by Muhammad b. `Ali Ibn Wahshiyya (3rd/9th cent.), GAL G I, 242. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 83. Loose leaves.
- (3) Notes and emendations by M.J. de Goeje, on Ibn Sa`d, Tabaqat. Loose slips of paper, folded.
- (4) Lecture or reading notes by M.J. de Goeje. They are apparently relevant to, or based on the work by F. Max Müller, Chips from a German workshop (London 1868-...), which contains I: Essays on the science of religion, and II: Essays on mythology, traditions and customs, III: Essays on literature, biography and antiquities, IV: Essays chiefly on the science of language. Loose papers of different sizes, marked A-L, and others. Also notes on the book by Palgrave, with whom W.G. Palgrave (1826-1888) may be meant.
- (5) Textual criticism by M.J. de Goeje. All referring to an unidentified work on geography.
- (6) Textual criticism by M.J. de Goeje, with reference to manuscripts:
 - Paris, Arabe 582 (Hay'at Ashkal al-Ard ...);
 - Berlin, Spr. 1 (Balkhi/Istakhri text).
 - And textual criticism by M.J. de Goeje of Ibn Hawqal, Kitab al-masalik wa-al-mamalik, preceded by a draft Latin translation of the introductory paragraphs. M.J. de Goeje's edition was published in Leiden 1873 (BGA 2). De Goeje used for his edition of Ibn Hawqal's work three manuscripts, and his collations must concern these manuscripts: L = MS Leiden, University Library, Or. 314 (Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 347). Without maps, copied in Istanbul in 926 AH.
 - B = MS Oxford, Bodleian Library, Hunt. 538 (Cat. Uri, p. 209, No. 963).
 - P = MS Paris, Bibliothèque Nationale, Arabe 2214 (Cat. De Slane, pp. 389-390).
 - Textual criticism on Ibn Gubayr's Rihla, with relevance to the edition by William Wright (Leiden 1852), which is based on MS Leiden Or. 320 (1), above; and similar notes on al-Bayan al-Mughrib by Ibn al-`Idhari (end of 7th cent. AH), GAL G II, 337, with relevance to MS Leiden Or. 67, above.

(7) Sheaf with loose leaves containing notes and abstracts by M.J. de Goeje from several texts, all in relevance to his editorial work on the Bibliotheca Geographorum Arabicorum. Also from al-Wafi bil-Wafayat by al-Safadi (biography of al-Balkhi), and several other texts. The sheaf also contains letters:

- M. Amari (1806-1889) to M.J. de Goeje, dated Florence, October 4, 1861.
- Ed. Sachau (1845-1930) to M.J. de Goeje, dated Wien, 6. März 1870; 14. März 1870.
- A. von Kremer (?) to M.J. de Goeje, dated Wabern bei Bern, May 8, 1861.

(8) Sheaf, with loose leaves, containing notes, indexes and textual criticism by M.J. de Goeje, mostly in connection with geographical texts.

(9) Sheaf with Berberica. An index of names of Berber tribes, taken by M.J. de Goeje from Ibn Khaldun, Histoire des Berbères (by de Slane, Algiers 1852-1856). Also a facsimile, not drawn by de Goeje, of a Berber inscription found in Constantine, according to the reading of Mr. Costa. Also a comparative table with the Maghribi and Berber alphabets, in the same hand as the facsimile of the inscription. Notes on the question whether or not Berber is a Semitic language.

(10) Collations by M.J. de Goeje, in connection with his work on BGA 1 and BGA 4.

This concerns, with mention of de Goeje's sigla:

O = MS London, India Office 1026. A Persian translation. See catalogue Ethé, I, col. 364-365 (No. 707). Collation from this MS also given by de Goeje in his lists in BGA, vol. 4.

After the completion of the edition in BGA vol. 1, de Goeje found it necessary to collate his text with other manuscripts. He gives his collations in volume 4 of the BGA (from p. 381 onwards). He describes his procedure on p. iv of the introduction. One of these is: F = MS Oxford, Bodleian Library, Ous. 373. A Persian translation. Purchased in 1812 by William Ouseley in Shiraz. See catalogue Sachau & Ethé, cols. 397-399 (No. 396).

(11) Notes by M.J. de Goeje, taken from a 'cahier' of C.A.C. Barbier de Meynard in Paris, containing text copied from a copy made by A. Sprenger (1813-1893) of a MS in Berlin and collated with a MS in Istanbul. The text contains the chapters on Persia and Khuzistan. It is not clear from which text they originate.

(12) Disparate sheets and leaves, with notes of textual criticism, mostly by M.J. de Goeje, but also by others. One sheet seems to have been written by an older scholar, possibly R.P.A. Dozy (1820-1883). All come from this portfolio.

Or. 5588 - Or. 5590

Manuscripts from the estate of Dr. S.J. Warren (1847-1910) of Rotterdam. Presented to the Library by his widow on February 11, 1910. Sijbrandus Johannes Warren was, as one can gather from the books published by him and which are in the Leiden catalogue, a classical scholar, who was at some time attached to the Erasmian Gymnasium in Rotterdam. Apart from his publications on classical subjects, mainly on Greek, he has a few works on indological subjects. His Leiden Ph.D. thesis was about Jainism: Over de godsdienstige en wijsgerige begrippen der Jaina's (Zwolle 1875). His published works do not seem to have any bearing on the three manuscripts from his collection which came to the Leiden library after his demise.

Or. 5588

Pali, palm leaf, 25 + 2 ff. + 10 blanks, Cambodian (Mul) script, dated Sunday, 1st month, 15th of the waxing, Siamese civil era, year of the cow, 3rd of the decade, corresponding to the Budhistic era 2384, 6th month, 29th day.

(1) 25 ff. Volume 5 of Angkuttaranikai Chokka-nibat (Angkuttara Nikaya, Chakka Nipata). The beginning of the text corresponds to that on p. 337, line 5, of the edition by E. Hardy, The Anguttara-nikaya. Part III. Panchaka-Nipata, and Chakka-Nipata. London 1896.

Beginning: siya kho pana bhante idh' eka-ceassa ayasmata evam assa [...].

(2) 2 ff. Unidentified text, clearly belonging to another text than the previously described (lay-out, handwriting).

(3) 10 blank ff.

Or. 5591 - Or. 5739

The Banten collection of Islamic manuscripts. On pp. 99-101 of the Inventory of the Oriental Manuscript Collection, the so-called 'Journaal', the 'Banten collection' is mentioned. This collection comprises manuscripts Or. 5591 - Or. 5739. A short description and provenance is given in the Inventory as follows: '149 manuscripts originating from an indigenous shaykh in Banten, who was under suspicion of heretical convictions. Received on 28 July 1906 from Prof. Dr. C. Snouck Hurgronje.' Or. 7935 j, below, also comes from this collection.

Snouck Hurgronje had found these manuscripts in or around 1890 in Serang, where they had been deposited after having been confiscated and where they had been stored already for quite a while when he found them. This becomes clear from a letter (now in the Snouck Hurgronje Archive, Or. 8952, below), by C. Snouck Hurgronje to M.J. de Goeje, dated The Hague July 11, 1906, which reads as follows:

'Den Haag, Laurens Reaelstr. 2
11/7 06.

Hooggeachte vriend,

Eindelijk heb ik de boeken enz., die ik uit Indië meebracht, kunnen uitpakken.

Daaronder bevindt zich eene verzameling, deels Arab. deels Jav. hss. (in Arab. schrift) die vele jaren geleden te Serang (Banten) in bewaring werden genomen en die ik vóór 16 jaren van daar meenam naar Batavia. De meeste, zoo niet alle, zijn van godsdienstigen aard en werden in beslag genomen bij een voornaam Inlander, dien men van antigouvernementeele agitatie verdacht.

Toen ik ze te Serang aantrof, hadden zij daar reeds jaren lang geheel verwaarloosd gelegen, zoodat sporen van vocht, insecten enz. in ruime mate te constateeren vielen. Daarbij komt nog, dat de inkt, waarmee sommige geschreven zijn, vitrioolhoudend was en allengs door het papier heen gevreten heeft.

Nadat ik destijds de collectie vluchtig onderzocht had, vooral om te zien of daarin iets te vinden was van actueel belang voor de Bantensche toestanden, bleef zij bij mij zo goed als onbenut. Het komt mij voor, dat zij het best bij de Leidsche handschriftenverzameling in te lijven waren, althans voor zoover zij nog voor bewaring in aanmerking komen. Dit zal eerst bij gezette schifting kunnen blijken.

Denkt U er ook zoo over, dan zal ik ze in eene kist aan het door U op te geven adres verzenden, met vriendelijk verzoek de kist zelve voorloopig voor mij in bewaring te willen doen houden totdat ik er nader over zal kunnen beschikken, en de manuscripten te nemen voor hetgeen zij zijn. Misschien is er wel een enkel tusschen geraakt, dat niet uit Banten afkomstig is, maar de tijd ontbreekt mij thans om dit behoorlijk na te gaan.

De ministerieele missive heb ik in dank van U terug ontvangen.
Met hartelijken groet, hoogachtend
Uw
C. Snouck Hurgronje'

¶ The collection manuscripts have been roughly arranged into three groups, according to the main language: 1. Javanese (Or. 5591-5621), 2. Malay (Or. 5622-5655, with numerous Javanese texts, however), 3. Arabic (Or. 5656-5738). The last manuscript mentioned in the 'Journaal', Or. 5739, is a text in Dakhini, with some Persian, from Pondichéry, India. It is not certain that Or. 5739 was ever part of the Banten collection, and it may have become mixed up with it at some stage, as Snouck Hurgronje in his above-mentioned letter holds possible. However, Or. 5739 shows a degree of fragility that is not unlike that state of the manuscripts in the Banten collection. The following contains a short-list of the entire Banten collection with all bibliographical references.

Or. 5591

Convolute manuscript, in Javanese, 46 pp.:

- (1) pp. 1-27. Jayabaya. Javanese. See: Juynboll II, p. 114 (where wrongly given the class-mark Cod. 5355). Pigeaud II, p. 326.
- (2) pp. 27-39. Shajarah, genealogy of Javanese kings. Romanized copy of this is Or. 10.679 and also BCB 161. Pigeaud II, pp. 326, 658.
- (3) pp. 39-46. Chronology. Pigeaud II, p. 326.
(in Mal. 1147)

Or. 5592

Notes, Muslim prayers, magic, ismu, mysticism, etc., mostly in Javanese, also in Malay, on dluang, 311 pp., containing i.a.:

- pp. 27-29, Javanese script. Incantation Padangyangan, Titi Murti
 - pp. 71-72, Kidung Purwaning Sétan, in verse
 - pp. 82-107, Nawala Pradata lawbook
 - pp. 107-120, Surya Ngalam lessons
 - pp. 132-176, Suluk Sujinah, in verse, alternating lines in Arabic and Javanese script; medicine and divination
 - pp. 283-204, treatise on Firasat, especially of women
 - pp. 311-304, Vocabulary Malay-Javanese (Basa Lumayu-Jawa)
- Partial copy of this manuscript is Or. 7580, below, with an elaborate Dutch summary and description of the contents, by C. Snouck Hurgronje.

Or. 5658

Composite volume with texts in Arabic and Persian, dating: ca. 1700 (by Voorhoeve).
 (1) ff. 1-118r: Collection of mystical poetry from Banten. Text in Arabic and Persian, with musical references. Extensive survey of the contents, with comparison to other, similar, manuscripts, in Voorhoeve, Handlist, pp. 456-457: 'Collections of mystical poetry, and poems in praise of the Prophet and saints. apparently used as textbooks for performances of dhikr. One MS has the Malay title Surat dikir, i.e. book of dhikr, and another: Dikir Besar, i.e. dhikr for the month of Dhu al-Higga. The poetry is closely related to that which is found in some rhymed Mawlid texts, and in the collections described under the titles Dhikr Rifa'i, and Ratib Rifa'i. The MSS described here may also have been used by members of the Rifa'iyya order, though there seems also to be some connection with the Qadiriyya. and there is some remote resemblance to the Dhikr Qadiri described by Ahlwardt, Cat. Berlin, No. 8256. Most of the poems are in Arabic, but some are in Persian and a few in Urdu, Tamil, Malay, and an unidentified (probably Indian) language. The contents of the various copies are not the same, but many poems are found in several copies, sometimes in the same order. All the poems are anonymous, and mostly introduced by the words qala rahmatu'llahi 'alaihi, sometimes by the name of the melody. Three copies have an introduction, in which blessings are invoked from the shaykhs: 'Abd al-Hadi al-Sudi (d. 932/1525; GAL, G II, 407), 'Abd al-Qadir al-Gilani (d. 561/1167; GAL, G I, 435), 'Abd Allah al Qadim Ba 'Abbad, and Abu Bakr b. 'Abd Allah al-'Aydarus (d. 909/1503; GAL, G II, 181). Some of al-Sudi's poems are included in the collections, but he is not the author of all or even most of the verses. L. Massignon has pointed out (in his 'Répertoire', in al-Andalus XIV p. 44 et sqq. and in Mélanges William Marçais p. 264 et sqq.) that some of the poems are by 'Ali b. 'Abdallah al-Shustari (d. 668/1269, GAL G I, 274). For the names of the melodies cf. E.I. s.v. Musiki,

Ahlw. No. 8256 and the MS. of 'Cantica ramadhanica' described by Fleischer, Cat. Leipzig no. CCCXVII. All the copies were written in Indonesia, except perhaps MS Jakarta, KBG 70 Arab., which may have been imported into Indonesia from India.

The present MS is a copy from Banten; the second part of the MS contains the Malay Sharaf al-Anam (q. v.). Text in Arabic and Persian, with the introduction. A poem by al-Sudi (an-Nur as-Safir p. 180, first poem) on f. 38r. Many names of melodies: Nagham sigah, chahargah, panggah, 'Iraq, Husayni, etc. Neatly written with black and red borderlines; well preserved.'

Or. 5690

Arabic and Javanese. Convolute volume with texts on mystical theology. Treebark paper (dluang), ??? ff.

(1) ff. 1-33: A mukhtasar of Bidayat al-Hidaya by al-Ghazzali (d. 505/1111), GAL G I, 422.

The beginning is missing. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 51.

(2) ff. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. ??

(3) ff. 33v-72r: Abbreviation, the first part only, of Asrar al-Salat wal-Tahara, taken from the Ihya` Ulum al-Din by al-Ghazali (d. 505/1111), GAL G I, 422. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 125, with an extensive discussion on the identification of this abbreviation.

(4) ff. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. ??

(5) ff. 59v-71r: Anonymous treatise on the Way to God, with interlinear translation in Javanese. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 464.

(6) ff. 71v-78v. Kitab al-Ma`lum, also called al-Ma`lum, al-Sutur, Fath al-Ghuyub and Miftah al-Ghuyub. Anonymous mystical treatise: Risala Mukhtasara fi Bidayat Qawa'id al-Sufiyya. This is the work from which the citation in the margin of Gawhar al-Daqa'iq, edited by C.A.O. van Nieuwenhuijze, Samsu 'l-Din van Pasai. Bijdrage tot de kennis der Sumatraansche mystiek. Leiden 1945, pp. 249 ff., has been taken. Beginning (after the basmala): al-Hamdu lillahi alladhi zahara bi Kashf Suturihi wa-batana bi-Sadid Zuhurihi, wal-Salat wal-Salam `ala Rasulihi Muhammadin Miftahi Umurihi wa-`ala Alihi wa-Ashabihi Ahli Hamdih wa-Shukurihi. I`lam anna al-Ma`lum `ala Thalathat Aqşam al-Wagib wal-`Adam al-Mumkin wal-`Adam al-Mahd ... See Voorhoeve, Handlist, pp. 180-181. Arabic, with interlinear Javanese notes (?).

(7) ff. 79-86r: Anonymous treatise, with interlinear translation in Javanese. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 464.

(8) ff. 86v-91v. Bayan al-Sirr. Anonymous mystical tract, with interlinear translation in Javanese. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 48.

(9) ff. 91v-96v: Risala fil-Turuq (= al-Usul al-`Ashara), by Nagm al-Din Ahmad b. `Umar al-Kubra (d. 618/1221), GAL G I, 440. With interlinear Javanese translation. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 305.

(10) ff. 96v-103v: al-Tuhfa al-Mursala ila Ruh al-Nabi, by Muhammad b. Fadl Allah al-Burhanpuri (d. 1029/1620), GAL G II, 418. With interlinear glosses in Javanese. See for a poetical version Or. 5594 (4), above. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 380.

(10a) ff. 103v-104v: Some sayings of al-imam al-Safari against the rawafid. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 454.

(11) ff. 104v-113r: Daqa'iq a al-Haqa'iq. Anonymous tract on the creation, death and eschatology. The same text as MS Calcutta, Catalogue Ivanow-Hidayat Husain, No. 814. According to Brockelmann, GAL S I, 923, a copy in the Asafiyya Library in Hyderabad mentions Fakhr al-Din al-Razi as the author, and the same attribution is found in a printed text with Urdu translation (Calcutta, n.d., but after 1847 [845 D 1], and probably a reprint of the edition Calcutta 1846, mentioned by J.F. Blumhardt, Catalogue of Hindustani books IOL, p. 257). Nur al-Din al-Raniri mentions this work together with al-Durra al-Fakhira as written by al-Ghazzali (see P. Voorhoeve, 'Three old Achehnese Manuscripts', in BSOAS 14 (1952), pp. 335-345, esp. p. 342. It is identical with Ahwal al-Qiyama, edited by M. Wolff (Muhammedanische Eschatologie. Nach der Leipziger und der Dresdner Handschrift zum ersten Male arabisch und deutsch mit Anmerkungen hrsg. von M. Wolff. Leipzig 1872 [844 D 22]). Concerning the titles under which it is known and the various authors to which it is ascribed, see GAL S I, 346 (but the statement that al-Taftazani is quoted in it is erroneous), and G. Levi della Vida, Elenco ... Vat., No. 242. Voorhoeve did not find any manuscript in the catalogues which was older than 866 AH (Berlin, Ahlwardt 2780). In the IOL manuscript and in the Calcutta edition, the part found in Wolff's edition, p. 73, line 5 – p. 104, line 4, is missing. In the two Leiden copies from Java (the present MS and Or. 7164 (6), below), the lacuna at the same place is even larger. The present copy is devoid of interlinear notes. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 57.

(12) ff. 113r-114r: Anonymous commentary on sura 41:53 (al-Maglis al-A`la). See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 176.

(13) ff. 114v-117r: Anonymous treatise on ishq - `ashiq - ma`shuq. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 464.

(14) ff. 117v-118r: K. Magnun Allah. Anonymous treatise on Fana`, Salat Da`im and mystical frenzy. Another copy is in London, IOL, Loth 1047 (III). The last part only. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, pp. 178-179.

(15a) ff. 118v-119v: Notes on shahada and questions about Iblis. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 453.

(15b) ff. 119r-v: Inzal al-Ruh. A short treatise about the origin of Ruh by an author who in some copies is called `Abd al-Da`if, but in other copies more correctly `Abduhu al-Da`if or `Abd Allah al-Da`if. MS London, IOL, No. 2446, ff. 201v-205r, contains a Javanese translation of the text. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 131.

(16) ff. 120r-141v. Ma`din al-Ma`lum wa-Muzil al-Humum. Anonymous, probably an abridgment of `Aga`ib al-Malakut by Muhammad b. `Abd al-Malik (or `Abdallah) al-Kisa`i (5/11th cent.), GAL G I, 350. With glosses in Javanese. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, pp. 3, 174.

(17) ff. 141v-142v: Quotations on the subject of the difference between Nubuwwa and Risala, from Kitab al-Mafatih, which is not Kitab Mafatih al-Ghayb by Ibn al-`Arabi but Kitab Mafatih al-Ghayb by Fakhr al-Din al-Razi (d. 606/1209), GAL G I, 507. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 175.

(18) ff. 142v-145v: `Arsh al-Muwahhidin. Anonymous tract about salat. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 23.

(19) ff. 145v-147v: Short exposition on faith. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 453.

¶ Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 319, gives for Or. 5690 (8): Fath al-Rahman bi-Sharh Risalat al-Wali Raslan, commentary by Zakariya` b. Muhammad al-Ansari (d. 926/1520), on Risalat al-Tawhid by Raslan b. Ya`qub b. `Abd al-Rahman al-Ga`bari al-Dimashqi (d. c. 695/1296), GAL G I, 452. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 319. Or. 5719

Collective volume with texts in Arabic, with Malay and Javanese. A 17th cent. manuscript.

(1) ff. 1v-25r. al-Mufid. An anonymous commentary on Umm al-Barahin by Abu `Abdallah Muhammad b. Yusuf al-Sanusi (d. 892/1486), GAL G II, 250. Erroneously identified by Brockelmann as the commentary by al-Tilimsani. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, pp. 387-388, where the incipit, and also references to other manuscripts of this text in Jakarta and London are given. See also the remark at Or. 10.885, below.

(2) ff. 25v-76v: Commentary by Abu `Abdallah Muhammad b. Yusuf al-Sanusi (d. 892/1486), GAL G II, 250, on his own Umm al-Barahin. With Malay and Javanese notes on the fly-leaves. At the end quotations from Sharh al-Hikam, Rawd al-`Arifin and other works. Dated 1080 AH. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 387.

Not in Iskandar, Catalogue (1999).

(Ar. 2529)

Or. 5720

Collective volume with texts in Arabic and Javanese, Sundanese??, European paper, 221 ff., paper covers.

(1) ff. 1a-27a. al-Miftah fi Sharh Ma`rifat al-Islam, anonymous commentary on Bab Ma`rifat al-Islam wal-Iman, which is anonymous theological tract, very common in Indonesia.

Title on f. 27r. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 195, where also references to MSS in Jakarta and Paris, BNF, mal.pol. 35 (which latter MS has an author: Ahmad b. Shaykh al-Islam). In the beginning, the paper is heavily damaged with considerable loss of text. Matn written in red ink. At the end an owner's note in Javanese.

(2) ff. 27v-58v. Ta`liq. Notes by al-Ramli (d. 957/1550) to al-Sittun Mas'ala, ascribed to al-Zahid (d. 819/1416), GAL S II, 112. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 342. Titles on f. 27v. Matn in red ink. The text ending on f. 54b continues on f. 57b.

(2a) ff. 55r-57r. Collection of shorter religious texts and fragments in Javanese. Also notes on the Islamic lunar calendar, all written in several different hands. This section not mentioned in Pigeaud III, p. 336.

(3) ff. 59r-61v. Complete copy of Sharh Kalimatay al-Shahada, commentary on Risalat Kalimatay al-Shahada. This is the title given by Ph.S. van Ronkel, Supplement to the catalogue of the Arabic manuscripts preserved in the Museum of the Batavia Society of Arts and Sciences. Batavia, etc., 1913, Nos. 223-225, to a small anonymous tract on the meaning of the two terms of the Islamic confession of faith. With glosses in Javanese. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, pp. 315-316. Matn written in red ink.

(4) ff. 62r-80r. Disconnected parts of al-Muharrar by al-Rafi`i (d. 623/1226), GAL G I, 393. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 225.

(4a) ff. 80v-81r. Notes, in Arabic, on matters on Tahara, ritual purity. Not in Voorhoeve's Handlist.

(5) ff. 81v-185r. Disconnected parts of al-Muharrar by al-Rafi`i (d. 623/1226), GAL G I, 393. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 225. At the end (ff. 184v-185r) an Arabic du`a with Javanese heading (Punika dua nabi), apparently taken from a work entitled Riyad al-Salihin. With this latter text may be meant the work by Galal al-Din al-Suyuti (d. 911/1505), GAL G II, 143-158, S II, 178-198. See also No. 11, below.

(6) ff. 185v-204r. Arkan al-Nikah by Husayn b. Ahmad al-Mahfani, GAL S II, 628. Complete Arabic text, followed by some short notes. Dated 1141 AH (?). See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 23.

(7) ff. 204v-205v: Asrar al-Qafi'i li-Ahl al-Rafi'i, by Muhammad b. Ahmad al-Shatiri Ba`Alawi al-Hadrami al-Shafi'i al-Ash`ari (author on f. 204v). See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 28.

(8) ff. 206v-210r: Some eulogies from Dala'il al-Khayrat by al-Gazuli (d. 870/1465), GAL G II, 252. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 56. Here presented as a separate bibliographical entity, title on f. 210r.

(8a) ff. 210v-211r. A note, in Arabic, about the Adhan for the Friday prayer. Apparently taken from a work entitled Tagziyat al-'Ulum.

(9) ff. 211v-218r: The introductory chapter of Dala'il al-Khayrat by al-Gazuli (d. 870/1465), GAL G II, 252. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 56. Title on f. 211r. At the end (f. 218r) is the Sifat al-Rawda, with continuous text and without illustration.

(10) ff. 218v-221v: Prayers in Javanese interspersed with Arabic. Punika Syarh dua ... See Pigeaud II, p. 336.

(11) f. 221v. Bab al-Tawba, apparently also (see No. 5, above) taken from the work Riyad al-Salihin. Abrupt end.

See Edi S. Ekadjati, Naskah Sunda. Inventarisasi dan Pencatatan. Bandung 1988, pp. 235-236.

(Ar. 2530)

Or. 5720a

Arabic and Javanese (or Malay?), paper, 8 ff., naskh script.

Prayer, Du'a'. Mainly in Arabic, but here and there words in an Indonesian language can be discerned. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 67. Not in Iskandar, Catalogue (1999).

[* in Ar. 2530]

Or. 5720b

Arabic, Malay, paper, 1 f., naskh script.

One leaf containing a fragment of an mystical Qasida in Arabic, in the basit metre, rhyming in ta', with interlinear word for word translation in Malay (old orthography, with three dots under some d's). In all, nine distichs are given. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 460. Not in Iskandar, Catalogue (1999).

Or. 5721

Collective volume with texts in Arabic,

(1) ff. ?-?. al-Mufid. An anonymous commentary on Umm al-Barahin by Abu `Abdallah Muhammad b. Yusuf al-Sanusi (d. 892/1486), GAL G II, 250. Erroneously identified by Brockelmann as the commentary by al-Tilimsani. Copy from Java. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, pp. 387-388, where the incipit, and also references to other manuscripts of this text in Jakarta and London are given.

(2) ff. ?-?. Commentary by Abu `Abdallah Muhammad b. Yusuf al-Sanusi (d. 892/1486), GAL G II, 250, on his own Umm al-Barahin. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 387.
(Ar. 2531)

Or. 5722

Arabic.

(1) ff. ?-?: Ta`liq. Notes by al-Ramli (d. 957/1550) to al-Sittun Mas`ala, ascribed to al-Zahid (d. 819/1416), GAL S II, 112. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 342.

(2) ff. 6v-23r: Targhib al-A`mal fi Bayan Kayfiyyat al-Salat. Anonymous mystical treatise. All MSS in Leiden come from Indonesia, and so does MS Berlin, Schöm. XI, 1, Ahlwardt 3550. The beginning is similar to that of Arsh al-Muwahhidin. A nearly complete copy. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 369.

(Ar. 2532)

Or. 5723

Collective volume with texts in Acehnese, Malay and Arabic.

- ff. 12v-13r. Du`a` tulak bala. See P. Voorhoeve, Catalogue of Acehnese manuscripts (1994), pp. 212, 263. It is not altogether certain that this MS was originally part of the Banten collection. It may somehow have become mixed up with the Banten collection after that had been seized, and was then offered to the Leiden library by C. Snouck Hurgronje. See also Voorhoeve's discussion on the provenance of Or. 5635, above.

- 33 ff. Hizb al-Bahr, commonly ascribed to Abu al-Hasan b. `Abdallah al-Shadhili (d. 656/1258), GAL G I, 449. However, in this MS it is stated that the author is not the Sufi shaykh who died in Mukha but his namesake who died in Sham. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 117.

- With other pieces in Arabic and Acehnese for recitation, and notes in Malay, from al-Shaykh `Abdallah b. `Ali al-Makki, dated 1268 AH. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 117.

(3) pp. ?-?: Du`a`. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 67.

Not in Iskandar, Catalogue (1999).

(Ar. 2533)

Or. 5724

Arabic (and Persian?, with Malay notes?), paper, 54 ff.

A fragment of an abridged recension of Dikir Besar, on Dhikr. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 458, where remarks about the relationship with another version. Not in Iskandar, Catalogue (1999).

Arabic. European paper, 23 ff.

Mukhtasar fi `ilm al-Nahw, or Taqwim al-Lisan. Anonymous. 19th. Cent.?. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 228.

(Ar. 2535)

Or. 5726

Collective volume with texts in Arabic and Javanese, Sundanese??, European paper, 80 ff., 19th cent. (No. 3).

- (1) ff. 2v-8v: Bayan al-Alif. Anonymous mystical tract. See also, H. Kraemer, Een Javaansche primbon, p. 79, note 2 (probably referring to a Javanese translation of this text). The Arabic text with interlinear translation in Javanese. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 43.
- (2) ff. 8v-12v: Bab Sakarat al-Mawt. Anonymous, Arabic. With interlinear translation in Javanese. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 325.
- (3) ff. 12v-18v: Bayan al-Ruh. Anonymous, Arabic, with Javanese interlinear translation. Beginning: wa-in su'ilta kayfa Sifat al-Ruh... See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 47.
- (4) ff. 18v-27v: Bab fi Bayan Haqiqat al-Salat wal-Shahada wal-Sakarat. Anonymous. Arabic, with interlinear Javanese translation. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 45.
- (5) ff. 27v-32v: Bab Ma`rifat al-Din min al-Din al-Ghayr, anonymous collection of mystical sayings. Arabic, with interlinear Javanese translation. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 194.
- (6) ff. 32v-41v: Kitab Bayan Allah fi Ma`rifat Bayan min Kull Bayan, by Yusuf b. Muhammad Makkiyya, or at least ascribed to an author of that name. It is a tract on pantheistic mysticism, for the most part consisting of statements by God, the Prophet Muhammad and teachers of mysticism, one of them the author himself. See also C.A.O. van Nieuwenhuijze, Samsu`l-Din van Pasai. Bijdrage tot de kennis der Sumatraansche mystiek. Leiden 1945, p. 397, note 37, who by mistake has cut the title in two and speaks of two tracts. The Malay poem Tuan di Mekah in C.A.O. van Nieuwenhuijze, op. cit., p. 385 is not by the present author but probably by Hamza Fansuri. The present tract is clearly of Indonesian origin as all the manuscripts come from Indonesia and the Arabic is unidiomatic. Another MS is in London, India Office, Loth 1046, VIII. With interlinear Javanese translation. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 43-44.
- (7) ff. 41v-44v: On the synod of the Javanese saints in Giri Kadaton. Javanese in Arabic script. Cf. Pigeaud II, p. 337.
- (8) ff. 45r-50r: Schematic figures. Javanese in Arabic script. Cf. Pigeaud II, p. 337.
- (9) ff. 50v-52r: On gusti-kawula mystic relations. Javanese in Arabic script. Cf. Pigeaud II, p. 337.
- (10) f. 52v: List of Sri Puwahacis. Javanese in Arabic script. Cf. Pigeaud II, p. 337.
- (11) ff. 54-59r: Schematic tables, theology. Javanese in Arabic script. Cf. Pigeaud II, p. 337.
- (12) ff. 59-61r: On the seven martabats. Javanese in Arabic script. Cf. Pigeaud II, p. 337.
- (13) ff. 61r-64r: Qulub al-`Arifin, a tract on mysticism. Javanese in Arabic script. Cf. Pigeaud II, p. 337.
- (14) ff. 65r-68v. Fragments of a Javanese translation of Fragments only of Kitab al-Haraka, a work which is now lost, by Shams al-Din b. (Abi) `Abdallah al-Samatra'i (d. 1039/1630), see C.A.O. van Nieuwenhuijze, Samsu`l-Din van Pasai. Leiden 1945. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, pp. 108-109.

(15) ff. 65-80: Parts of various treatises on theology, in disorder. Javanese in Arabic script. Cf. Pigeaud II, p. 337.
See Edi S. Ekadjati, Naskah Sunda. Inventarisasi dan Pencatatan. Bandung 1988, p. 235.

Or. 5727

Collective volume, Arabic, Javanese, paper, badly damaged (eaten by termites), ff., dated 1257 AH (No. 7).

(1) ff. ?-?: Ta'liq. Notes by al-Ramli (d. 957/1550) to al-Sittun Mas'ala, ascribed to al-Zahid (d. 819/1416), GAL S II, 112. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 342.

(2) ff. 8v-12v: (4) ff. 34v-38v: Bab Sakarat al-Mawt. Anonymous. European paper, with (?) interlinear translation in Javanese. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 325.

(3) ff. ??-?? Bahgat al-'Ulum, anonymous commentary on Bayan 'Aqidat al-Usul, or: Masa'il, by Abu al-Layth Muhammad b. Abi Nasr b. Ibrahim al-Samarqandi, who seems to be identical with Abu al-Layth Nasr b. Muhammad b. Ahmad b. Ibrahim al-Samarqandi (4th cent.), GAL G I, 196. This catechism, one of the most popular religious textbooks in Indonesia, is mentioned twice by Brockelmann under different titles (Nos. 6 and 7). See Voorhoeve, Handlist, pp. 44-45 (the reference to this MS corrected in the interleaved copy (opposite p. 45) of the Handlist, kept in the Legatum Warnerianum).

(4) ff. ??-??. al-Miftah fi Sharh Ma'rifat al-Islam, anonymous commentary on Bab Ma'rifat al-Islam wal-Iman, which is an anonymous theological tract, very common in Indonesia.. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 195, where also references to MSS in Jakarta and Paris, BNF, mal.pol. 35 (which latter MS has an author: Ahmad b. Shaykh al-Islam).

(5) ff. 94v-124v: Khabar al-Mi'rag. Anonymous. A badly damaged copy. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, pp. 157-158, where reference to a MS in Batavia.

(6) ff. 125v-152v. Anonymous work on Fada'il al-Dhikr. Copied 1257 AH. Heavily damaged. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 467.

(7) ff. 153v-170r: Targhib al-A'mal fi Bayan Kayfiyyat al-Salat. Anonymous mystical treatise. All MSS in Leiden come from Indonesia, and so does MS Berlin, Schöm. XI, 1, Ahlwardt 3550. The beginning is similar to that of 'Arsh al-Muwahhidin. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 369.

//(2) ff. ??. Severely damaged copy of Sharh Kalimatay al-Shahada, commentary on Risalat Kalimatay al-Shahada. Arabic, with Javanese, Malay and Sundanese. Fragments.

Pigeaud II, pp. 337-338, describes the contents: Fragments of Arabic, Malay and Javanese treatises on mysticism, theology, fiqh, with some Arabic charms ... and two Sundanese notes.

(a) Malay. Syair.

(b) Javanese. Fragments on mysticism.

(c1) Javanese (?).

(c2) ff. 4v-14r. Kitab al-Ma`lumat, also called al-Ma`lum, al-Sutur, Fath al-Ghuyub and Miftah al-Ghuyub. Anonymous mystical treatise: Risala Mukhtasara fi Bidayat Qawa`id al-Sufiyya. This is the work from which the citation in the margin of Gawhar al-Daqa`iq, edited by C.A.O. van Nieuwenhuijze, Samsu 'l-Din van Pasai. Bijdrage tot de kennis der Sumatraansche mystiek. Leiden 1945, pp. 249 ff., has been taken. Beginning (after the basmala): *al-Hamdu lillahi alladhi zahara bi Kashf Suturihi wa-batana bi-Sadid Zuhurihi, wal-Salat wal-Salam `ala Rasulih Muhammadin Miftahi Umurihi wa-`ala Alihi wa-Ashabihi Ahli Hamdihi wa-Shukurihi. (d) ff. 32. Collection of mystical poetry. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 458.

(e) ff. 3. Fragment, the end only, of Kitab Bayan Allah fi Ma`rifat Bayan min Kull Bayan, by Yusuf b. Muhammad Makkiyya, or at least ascribed to an author of that name. It is a tract on pantheistic mysticism, for the most part consisting of statements by God, the Prophet Muhammad and teachers of mysticism, one of them the author himself. See also C.A.O. van Nieuwenhuijze, Samsu 'l-Din van Pasai. Bijdrage tot de kennis der Sumatraansche mystiek. Leiden 1945, p. 397, note 37, who by mistake has cut the title in two and speaks of two tracts. The Malay poem Tuan di Mekah in C.A.O. van Nieuwenhuijze, op. cit., p. 385 is not by the present author but probably by Hamza Fansuri. The present tract is clearly of Indonesian origin as all the manuscripts come from Indonesia and the Arabic is unidiomatic. Another MS is in London, India Office, Loth 1046, VIII. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 43-44.

(f) ff. 8. Fragment of a mystical work in the style of Ahmad al-Qushashi and Ibrahim al-Kurani. See Voorhoeve, Handlist, p. 466. With reference to Voorhoeve's Handlist, pp. 466-467, Iskander identifies this text as a mystical treatise, about dhikr, by `Abd al-Rauf b. `Ali al-Gawi.

- (g) Malay. 6 ff. Several fragments: Isim Allah. Isim Nabi. Haqiqat Sembahyang. The beginning only of Asrar al-Insan fi Ma`rifat al-Ruh wal-Rahman, by Nur al-Din al-Raniri.
- (h) Malay. 17 ff. Sifat duapuluh (beginning missing). Ma`na dua kalima syahadat yang terlebih baik diamalkan.
- (i) Javanese.

Dakhini (Dakni), and Persian. European paper, in safina style, kept in a (too large) red textile sack, ff., ?? script, text in 2 columns.

(1) Panchi bâcâ by Wagdi (= Wagh al-Din). Dakhini (Dakni) translation of the Persian Mantiq al-Tayr by Farid al-Din `Attar (d. after 586/1190). The headings for the episodes are in Persian, written in red ink. Copied in Pondichéry 1207 (1792). Colophon in Persian: copied on 5 Rabi` I 1207 by Mirza Ni`mat Allah Beg, son of Muhammad Baqir, on Monday, at daybreak in the town of Phulichary in the house of Patan Mistri Farsangi. According to an English description of the text (loosely added to the MS), the translator would be Wajahuddin. See also Garcin de Tassy, Histoire de la littérature hindoue, III, p. 278. His manuscript also comes from Pondichéry.

(2) Shorter poetical texts, (also in Dakhini?).

According to P. Voorhoeve, 'Indonesische handschriften' (1952), p. 212, this MS may have been mixed-up with the Banten collection, and may have come from another source. Snouck Hurgronje may have purchased it in Batavia, and it is even not absolutely certain that the manuscript ever belonged to Snouck Hurgronje.

Collective volume with texts in Javanese, paper, 50 pp., Javanese script.

(1) pp. 1-42. Tale of Aji Saka, in verse. He is the grandson of begawan Kures, of Medinah, who settled in Mesir. Aji Saka is given supernatural power by the dragon Antaboga. He meets bhatara Guru, together they go to see Muhammad in Arab. Muhammad's four sekabat Abu-Bakar, Usman, Umar and Ali are described (p. 14) respectively as a singing santri dul, as a mendicant preacher, as bestowing gifts and as a warrior in the prang sabil (holy war). Aji Saka follows the four sekabat, as they are ordered by Muhammad to visit the well Jamjam (Zamzam) to find out why its water is stinking. On the way Aji Saka meets Iblis Juja-Makjuja who gives him supernatural power and knowledge and so makes him a servant of Satan. Returning to Muhammad he is told that he is Muhammad's antipode (timbangan). He is given the name Aji Saka, and instruction in chronology and divination (naptu, naqt, numerical values of days: p. 24-30). Aji Saka is sent away and ordered to go to Java, with many instructions and prophecies. Abu Bakar will come to Java (Japara, Mantingan, central North Coast) to introduce the santri dul practices (dikir, singing, dancing). Aji Saka chooses one servant (sekabat) out of two. His name is Ana (the beginning of the Javanese alphabet). The other one, Alip, is Muhammad's servant. Ana and Alip kill each other because of Aji Saka's knife (parrot), and disappear. Aji Saka and Muhammad, looking for their servants, meet again. They find on the place of the combat under a tree, called Ajir by Muhammad, two leaves, one with the 30 Arabic letters and the other with the 20 Javanese ones written on them. Aji Saka flies over the ocean to Java: list of the Javanese mangsas (months) and constellations (lintang, astronomy, p. 38), and a list of birds. He arrives in Java in the year 1 (konir wuk datanpa jalu) and settles in the Kendeng hills (North Coast), as King of Medang Kamulan. Transcription of a text written in Arabic script, bad spelling. Origin: Central North Coast, 19th century, based on old popular traditions. See also Or. 5790, below.

(2) pp. 42-43. Sangkala, years, with reference to mountains of Central and East Java, in verse.

(3) pp. 43-49. Tale of Ratu Baka, in verse. The king orders his two young servants Sir and Wenda to pull out a waringin tree each and to plant them, one on mount Lawu and the other on mount Merapi, to enclose on both sides the Royal residences of Surakarta and Mataram. Moreover Sir is ordered to dam the Surakarta river (Bengawan). Incomplete. Origin: Central Java.

(4) p. 49. Note, in verse, on the naptus (numeral values) of months and days, for divination.

Or. 10.867, below, contains a list of initial lines of cantos by J. Soegiarto. See Pigeaud II, pp. 343-344.

Or. 5801 - Or. 5816

Arabic, Persian, Turkish and Armenian manuscripts, purchased in July 1913 from Mr. Kramp. There are two interesting earlier provenances discernable for this collection.

- Muchlinsky: Or. 5801, Or. 5802, Or. 5804, Or. 5805. He may be the Antoni Muchlinsky, who wrote an etymological dictionary of words of Turkish origin that entered the Polish language (Petersburg 1858 [8008 E 8]). See on another manuscript originating from him M.J. de Goeje in the preface (p. viii) to BGA 7 (1892), on al-Ya`qubi's Kitab al-Buldan and on the Library in Munich.

- A.I. Silvestre de Sacy (1758-1838): Or. 5807, Or. 5808, Or. 5809. The manuscripts of Silvestre de Sacy have also been in the possession of a certain 'Le Ch. Ferrão de Castelbranco. 70. Avenue des Champs-Élysées'.

- The Munshi of William Moorcroft (d. 1825) is represented with two copies of his travelogue from Attock to Bukhara and back: Or. 5811, Or. 5812. These may have been his own copies.

Or. 5801

Persian, with some Turkish, paper, 93 ff., naskh script, dated Monday in end Gumada I 1020, copied by Dilawar b. Inhan Beg Bakuradalni (?), in Bilghrad (Belgrade, colophon on f. 93b, with copyist verse in Persian), full-leather Islamic binding, flap loose, with blind tooled ornaments (borders, medallions).

Baharistan by `Abd al-Rahman Gami (d. 891 AH).

- On ff. 1a-3a notes, quotations, etc. Also lines by Hafiz, and on ff. 2b-3a an owner's mark in Turkish by Tufengi Yamaghi Yahya Mir, dated 1217 AH, and some Turkish poetry written by this owner.

Earlier provenance: A label on the back cover says: '105. Muchlinsky. 111'. A card pasted in the book, at the beginning of the volume bears the title: 'Baharistan Gami. Le Beharistan de Djamy. man. persan', and another number: '69.

[* Ar. 2557]

Or. 5802

Persian, paper, 141 ff., nasta`liq script, leather Islamic binding, now covered with green silk, leather doublure.

Bustan, by Sa`di Shirazi (d. 691/1292).

- On f. 1a a recipe.

Earlier provenance: A label on the front cover says: '93. Muchlinsky. 111'. A card pasted in the book, at the beginning of the volume bears the title: 'Bustan-i Sa`di. Le Boustan de Sa`adi. M. per., and another number: '14'.

Arabic, Persian, with some Turkish, paper, 97 ff., naskh script, half-leather Islamic binding, pasted boards, text on spine illegible.

Nisab-i Sibyan. Arabic-Persian dictionary, metrically composed, by Abu Nasr al-Farahi (8/14th cent.), GAL G II, 193. With Turkish glosses. Not in Voorhoeve's Handlist.

- On f. 97a a text in Turkish, in diwani script.

[* Ar. 2559]

Or. 5804

Collective volume with texts in Arabic, Turkish and Persian, paper, 76 ff. (no ff. 46-61), nasta`liq script, full-leather Islamic binding, with blind tooled ornamentation (borders).

The Arabic texts in the volume are not in Voorhoeve's Handlist.

(1) ff. 1b-2a. Shorter notes. Also a medical recipe in Turkish.

(2) ff. 2b-10a. Arabic. Istinzal al-Nasr bil-Tawassul bi-Ahl Badr, urguza ascribed to Ahmad b. al-Husayn al-Mutanabbi (d. 354/965), GAL G I, 86; GAS II, 484-497, where there is no mention of this text. The names of the Badriyyun are distinguished by red overlining. The present poem is in fact an easy-going Urguza containing the names of the participants in the battle of Badr, which were collected here for the magical properties. It is hardly possible to assume that al-Mutanabbi would be the author.

(3) ff. 11b-14a. Arabic. al-Qasida al-Mudariyya fi al-Salat `ala Khayr al-Bariyya by Muhammad b. Sa`id al-Busiri (d. 694/1294), GAL G I, 267.

(4) ff. 15b-18b. Turkish. Qasida of religious content, rhyming in -an. Unidentified.

(5) ff. 19b-.42b. Amthal. Collection of Arabic proverbs, alphabetically arranged, with extensive commentary in Turkish for each proverb or saying.

(6) f. 43a. A loose leaf, added to the volume. Lines of Turkish poetry by Ishaq Efendi.

(7) ff. 44b-45b, 62a (no ff. 46-61 in the volume). Lines of poetry, in Turkish and Persian.

Also: Mufradat-i Baqi Efendi (ff. 45b-62a).

(8) f. 69b. A note in Arabic on calligraphy and the famous calligraphers.

(9) ff. 70b-71a. Turkish. Collection of poetical lines, brought together in connection with powerful names. Unidentified.

(10) ff. 71b-73b. Copies of poetical and prose correspondence. A chronogram by Samih Efendi for Qa`immaqam Sulayman Pasha (f. 71b), with date 1188 AH. Also mention of 1168 AH and 1157 AH (f. 72b). One letter signed by Gangdar (?) Ahmad `Abd al-Baqi `Arif, al-Qadi bi-Misr.

(11) f. 74b. Poem in Arabic by As`ad Efendi for Khalid Efendi.

(12) f. 75b. Lines of Turkish poetry.

(13) f. 76b. Persian poetry, by Nahifi.

Earlier provenance: A label on the back cover says: '60. Muchlinsky. 111'. A card pasted in the book, at the beginning of the volume bears the title: 'Magmu`a-yi Qasa'id. Recueil de poèmes turcs', and another number: '198'.

[* Ar. 2560]

Or. 5805

Collective volume with texts in Turkish, with some Arabic and Persian, paper, 110 ff., naskh script, illuminated double openings on ff. 2b-3a, 16b-17a, full-leather Islamic binding with blind tooled ornaments (borders, medallion). Table of contents for the volume on f. 2a, but only titles 1 and 2 of this table are present in the volume. The other titles are: 3. Futuwwatnama (also in the lower edge), 4. Hawra Sharhi (possibly a commentary on al-Hawra' fi Sharh al-Zawra', commentary by Muhammad b. As`ad al-Dawwani (d. 907/1501), GAL G II, 218, on his own al-Zawra', or Risalat al-Zawra'), 5. Rasukhi Ghazaliyyatin Sharhi.

(1) ff. 2b-16a. Hazrat `Umar Faruqin Abu Shahma (?) Mansaba-si (?), possibly followed by other shorter texts. Mystical treatise, possibly lacunous (between ff. 11-12) and in disorder (also several blank pages). On ff. 10a-11 is the Arabic text of Khutbat Adam, the Sermon of Adam, which is not in Voorhoeve's Handlist.

(2) ff. 16b-110a. Garida-yi Mathnawi. Selected lines taken from the Persian Mathnawi-yi Ma`nawi by Galal al-Din Rumi (d. 672/1273), with commentary in Turkish. Detailed table of contents on f. 1b, giving the themes treated in this selection, beginning with Kitman al-Sirr.

Earlier provenance: A label on the back cover says: '38. Muchlinsky. 111'. A card pasted in the book, at the beginning of the volume bears the title: 'Magmu`a-yi Khawass. Trait  mystique', and another number: '88'.

Persian, paper, 84 ff., nasta`liq script, full-leather binding with coloured ornaments (double borders), European style rebounded, label on spine with misleading title: 'Tarikh-i Abad Qarin Mas`ud. History of Abad Qarin Mas`ud. Persian MS'.

The third volume only of the Iqbalnama-yi Gahangiri, composed in 1029/1620 by Muhammad Sharif, known as Mu`tamadkhan (d. 1049/1639). Identified with MS London, IOL 247 (catalogue Eth  cols. 121-122, No. 314, who mentions editions Calcutta 1865 and Lucknow 1286 AH). Text possibly incomplete at the end.

Earlier provenance: Owner's mark by George A. Rigby, Novr. 18th, 1809 (fly-leaf at end).

[* Ar. 2562]

Or. 5807

Turkish, paper, 1 + 127 ff., naskh script, oldest owner's mark is dated 1144 AH (front leaf), full-leather Islamic binding with flap, blind tooled ornament (medallion), rebounded. On the spine: 'Des Origines des Choses. MS. Turc.' Also on the spine a label with '392'.

Kitab-i Awwaliyyat (Kitab-i Evveleiat), a Turkish compilation of the genre Awa'il books. Alphabetically arranged. As translator or Turkish compiler is mentioned on f. 1a: Duqakin-zada (?). The text is preceded by a table of contents, with reference to the folio numbers. At the end (f. 125a) the Arabic sources are given, Awa'il Shibli, Awa'il Suyuti, etc. Prints of an elaborately designed waqf seal.

- On f. 125b are Qur'anic statistics, the number of sura's (114), the number of ayat (6666), the number of words (77409), the number of letters (235531), with a break down for each letter of the Arabic alphabet.

Earlier provenance: In the front cover is two paste-ins with owners' names:

- 'M. Silvestre de Sacy No. 333'. He is, of course, the famous French orientalist A.I. Silvestre de Sacy (1758-1838). The Leiden library had already a few manuscripts originating from his library (Or. 1603-Or. 1605, above).

- 'Le Ch. Ferrão de Castelbranco. 70. Avenue des Champs-Élysées'.

- Also inside the front cover a cutting from an antiquarian's catalogue or an auction catalogue, with No. 333. It does not come from Bibliothèque de M. le Baron Silvestre de Sacy. Paris 1842-1847, 3 vols. [2672 F 12-14 / Hotz 1902].

(1) ff. 1b-24a. Tuhfe-i Shahidi, rhymed Persian-Turkish dictionary by Ibrahim Shahidi (d. 957/1550). Identified with Or. 148, above. With a lay-out specially designed for marginal notes, partly filled with commentary (up to f. 13a).

(2) ff. 24a-25a. List of the numerical values of the letters of the Arabic alphabet (f. 24a), followed by numbers, written in Persian words and in figures, from one till ten million.

(3) ff. 25b-28a. Tuhfat al-Hadiya, or Danestan. Persian-Turkish dictionary by Muhammad b. Hacci Ilyas, possibly incomplete at the end. Ff. 28b-33b blank.

Earlier provenance: In the front cover is a paste-in with possibly the name of a former owner living in Paris: 'Le Ch. Ferrão de Castelbranco. 70. Avenue des Champs-Élysées'.

Also inside the front cover a cutting from an antiquarian's catalogue or an auction catalogue, with No. 339. It does not come from Bibliothèque de M. le Baron Silvestre de Sacy. Paris 1842-1847, 3 vols. [2672 F 12-14 / Hotz 1902]. Yet the MS may originate, as Or.

Persian, paper, 183 ff., shekaste script, some figures (pedigrees), full-leather European binding, with label on spine: 'Journey to Bokhara'. Drawings (map, pedigrees).

The neat copy of Ahwal-i Safar-i Bukhara, by Hafiz Fadil Khan, a secretary employed in the castle of Attock (east of Peshawar). Bukhara is mentioned in the title probably because it is the most western point in the journey. The present work describes a journey from Attock to Kashmir, Mast, Yarkand, Kashghar, Yakhgalan (residence of the king of China), then from Kashghar to Quqan (Khokand) in Ferghana, then further to Samarqand, Bukhara, from there to Balkh, Khalm, Kabul, Peshawar and back to Attock. The journey lasted from 27 Ragab 1227, 5 October 1812 AD till the end of Dhu al-Higga 1228, 16 December 1813 AD (f. 1b). The work is arranged in a schematical way, but without the gadwala of the draft copy. The columns indicate: 1. Nam-i Manzil (name of the locality); 2. Taraf (orientation); 3. Masafat (distance); 4. Ahwal (situation). Only the latter category allows for more elaborate descriptions and accounts. When these descriptions transcend the page, there are pages which are not provided with columns, but which contain text only. On f. 183a the end, with description of the castle of Atag. Or. 5812, below, is what seems to be the draft copy of the text, and the present text is a page-by-page copy of the draft.

- f. 23a. The date 26 October 1812 is mentioned.

- f. 47a. Map of a building or compound.

Persian, paper, 184 ff., nasta`liq script, full-leather Islamic binding with gilded ornaments (borders, fields), some figures (pedigrees, maps).

On the fly-leaf at the end is written in pencil: 'Route book and observations of Hafiz Fazil Khan, who accompanied Moorcroft 1812-1813'. With the later is meant the traveller William Moorcroft (d. 1825). The dating of the journey to 1812-1813 is a bit of a chronological problem, as Moorcroft only seems to have travelled in 1811-1812 and from 1819 till his death in 1825 [DNB 38, pp. 337-338].

The draft copy of Ahwal-i Safar-i Bukhara, by Hafiz Fadil Khan, a secretary employed in the castle of Attock (east of Peshawar). Bukhara is mentioned in the title probably because it is the most western point in the journey. The present work describes a journey from Atag to Kashmir, Mast, Yarkand, Kashghar, Yakhgalan (residence of the king of China), then from Kashghar to Quqan (Khokand) in Ferghana, then to Samarqand, Bukhara, then to Balkh, Khalm, Kabul, Peshawar and back to Attock. The journey lasted from 27 Ragab 1227, 5 October 1812 till the end of Dhu al-Higga 1228, 16 December 1813 (f. 1b). The work is arranged as a table with columns (with gadwala). These indicate: 1. Nam-i Manzil (name of the locality); 2. Taraf (orientation); 3. Masafat (distance); 4. Ahwal (situation). Only the latter category allows for more elaborate descriptions and accounts. When these descriptions transcend the page, there are pages which are not provided with columns, but which contain text only. On f. 183a the end, with description of the castle of Attock. Or. 5811, above, is what seems to be the neat copy of the text.

Or. 5829

Mandailing and Angkola Batak popular stories in the van Ophuijsen collection (these are contained in Or. 5829, Or. 5831, Or. 5846 – Or. 5893, Or. 6038 and Or. 6041).

Two school reading books, each consisting of three parts. The first almost exclusively contains versions of real Batak stories, whereas the second only contain a few of these.

A. Djagar Simartampoewa, by Baginda Radja, a teacher in Goenoeng Baringin.

(A - 1st part):

I. Corresponds with OVB 24C.

II. Three types which have been employed under the condition that they do scratch themselves, each devise a story which must enable them to scratch themselves.

III. As in OVB 20 QRS.

IV. As in OVB 197C.

V. As in OVB 39 A.

VI. As in OVB 62.

VII. About a stupid man who first comes into the civilised world (more or less as the Simalungun story of the Sinumbah Pardagangan. See Codices Batacici, p. 306, Aanhangsel 7).

VIII. As in OVB 28.

IX. As in OVB 66 (horse thief).

X. More or less as in OVB 202. A man always brings much food to his home coming from a feast, but somehow he always loses it.

(A - 2nd part):

I. A girl marries a donkey who is dressed up like a haji. When she finds out the fraud after three years she has him clubbed dead.

II. As in OVB 60, but the end is different: the poison of the cactus tree is in the young sprouts. They let the poison drip on another branch, and that is how the tree becomes rotten and is blown down by a storm.

III. As in OVB 192 (but the story is of European origin: the thief steals the horst of the king by getting the guards drunk with a sopi).

IV. As in OVB 155.

V. A haroeting-fish, whose water is likely to dry up, prevents a snake and a monkey from drinking it by giving them beautiful names, and he prevents an old woman from catching him by giving her a medicine that will make her a virgin again. She is hit by lightning and the thunderstorm fills the lake with water. See also OVB 53.

VI. As in OVB 33.

VII. As in OVB 190 B.

VIII. A story about thieves who steal a tiger instead of a goat.

IX. Si Toemboek is forced to give back eyes and legs which his animals are supposed to have destroyed. He offers to give these when the one-eyed and one-legged persons give theirs for comparison.

X. As in OVB 186/187.

(A - 3rd part):

I. A man imagines how he will exchange 'tjijferhouten' (pieces of wood, for tapping wine from palm trees) against chicken, the chicken against goats, the goats against cows, and the cows against a horse. He kills his son who maltreats the imaginary horse.

II. Two stupid men fix their belts to the horns of a sleeping stag as a sign of the right of property, then they start to quarrel about it. The stag wakes up and walks away with the belts.

III. As in OVB 198 D.

IV. As in OVB 194.

V. As in OVB 29 B, 38 D, 20 A.

VI. As in OVB 191; he takes the boat with chicken from the boatmen and then abducts in it three girls.

VII. A rich man simulates to have died in order to test his heirs, and is almost beaten to death by them.

VIII. As in OVB 21 A (midget deer and bear), 20 HI.

IX. As in OVB 142 G.

X. As in OVB 20 O, 39 B2.

B. Roedang Parsaoeljan, by Soetan Endar Bongsoe, a head teacher in te Goenoeng-Baringin. He also wrote Or. 5846 – Or. 5849, below. Mostly phantasized stories or stories translated from other reading books. An excerpt is in Or. Or.12.475, below.

A few deserve separate mention:

Volume IB.

IV, as Djagar Simartampoewa 3,I.

VI. Oera-oera, as in OVB 39 D (man and turtle).

X. As in Djagar Simartampoewa 2,II, the final part only.

Volume IIA.

11 lessons, not folk stories. Even the midget deer stories Nos. X and XI are made up.

Volume IIB.

V. Ama ni Pandir, as in OVB 197 GF.

VI. As in Djagar Simartampoewa 2, X.

VII, As in Djagar Simartampoewa 3, IV.

VIII. Si Parmiskin, has to catch fish that bites with its tail (meaning: he has to bring the fish alive, hanging by its tail). Further as in OVB 188 F. He has to make the sea dry and promises to do so if his uncle closes the rivers.

X. De story about payment for the smelling of food, rhymed.

The language of these reading books is typically Mandailing Batak, with many anorganic h's and the like. In the handwriting of Baginda Radja the letters a and o can hardly be distinguished from one another.

See P. Voorhoeve, Codices Batacici. Leiden 1977, pp. 201-203.

Or. 5831

Batak, paper, 60 pp., Batak script.

Copy of (or copy for the publication of) Djalembang Goenoeng Doli, Soerat Parsipodaan, a reading book for schools, which only contain popular stories, all of which have been treated by P. Voorhoeve in OVb. The first edition was published in Batavia in 1889 [885 F 26]. The manuscript copy is incomplete, the end corresponds with the text on p. 63 of the edition of 1906 [870 D 22]. In the text there are small textual variant reading as compared to the printed edition. Between pp. 28-29 are 8 pp. added in the size of an exercise book with a transliteration in Latin script of stories Nos. 16 and 17. See P. Voorhoeve, Codices Bataci (Leiden 1977), p. 203.

Mandailing and Angkola Batak popular stories in the van Ophuijsen collection are contained in Or. 5829, Or. 5831, Or. 5846 – Or. 5893, Or. 6038 and Or. 6041.

¶ See also T. Iskandar, Catalogue (1999), pp. 225-226 (No. 491), where this number is wrongly treated together with the previously described manuscript, as if Or. 5830 and Or. 5831 were both Malay manuscripts.

Or. 5912

Collective volume with texts in Minangkabau Malay, paper, 25 ff., Latin script, copied by Kamilloedin galar Soetan Malenggang at Singkarak, dated 12 August 1892, exercise book 'No. 57'.

(1) ff. 1a-7b. Chabar Nasoha, Kaba Nasoha. The story of Nasoha, a Jewish evildoer who, accompanied by his wife, retires to a cave without taking any food with him to ask God's forgiveness. At first they live on the fruits of the forest, which eventually run out. Looking for food Nasoha finds a she-goat in kid. After the kid is born Nasoha and his wife live on the goat's milk. Their livestock increases and at last they become rich. God sends Gabriel to test Nasoha's faith. Gabriel comes to Nasoha in the shape of a young man, claims that he is the owner of the goat found by Nasoha, and reclaims everything, even what Nasoha has consumed. After Nasoha has complied with his demands Gabriel gives him back everything.

(2) ff. 8a-21b. Kaba Pakih Soetan, the story of Pakih Soetan, a prince who surpasses his teacher. Feeling offended the teacher sets the ruler against his son. Pakih Soetan leaves the palace and on his way comes across a tiger which teaches him the art of fighting and a snake which gives him a wishing-ring. He arrives in a country where he goes to a place of worship where people are reciting the Qur'an. A palace-maiden hears Pakih Soetan reciting and tells princess Noeroel Alam of his beautiful voice. Every day Pakih Soetan is summoned to the palace. The princess refuses to marry her fiancé radjo Ange' Garang. Enraged her father beheads her. Repentant the ruler wants her to be revived and promises that she will be given in marriage to anyone who is able to revive her, but nobody proves capable of this. By divination it is known that Pakih Soetan is the one who has the power to do that. He is summoned to the palace, revives

Noeroel Alam and marries her. Meanwhile back in his own country, radjo Ange' Garang hears of the marriage of Noeroel Alam and Pakih Soetan, goes to war and is defeated by Pakih Soetan. Together with his wife, Pakih Soetan goes to see his parents. On his way he is chosen by a white elephant to become ruler of a kingless country. Back home Pakih Soetan finds his country reverted into a jungle, the palace has changed into stone. Through the magic of the ring everything reverts to its original form. He finds his parents again as traders in the market.

(3) ff. 22a-25a. Kaba Sija' Oleh. The story of a poor young man who lives with his mother and whose livelihood is fishing for prawns. One day he catches a burak bird stealing his prawns. He brings it home and it appears that the burak's droppings are pure gold. Sija' Oleh becomes rich and is invited by the ruler to stay in the palace to entertain the prince with his burak. One day the burak pecks at the pomegranate of the prince who begins to cry. Sija' Oleh asks the burak to fly the prince and him to the forest to find some fruits. On their way the prince discerns a palace and asks to be brought there. The palace is the residence of princess Satangkai Boenga, called so because she is as light as the stem of a flower. Every day the prince wants to be brought to the princess. The ruler finds out that the princess is growing heavier all the time and captures the prince. As he is going to be executed the burak saves him. Now the ruler asks the princess to choose her own husband. She finds the prince clad in old and dirty clothes and chooses him. They marry and the prince becomes the ruler of both countries.
